General Depth of Commitment Expected of a True slave

Let's call this "A tentative credo for the slave" remembering, that each Master has the prerogative to modify it.

1. i am a slave, and as such i surrender myself completely to my Master, and to His love for me.
2. Because my body is now my Masters property, it is no longer my right to protest any use He chooses to make of it. Rather, it is an honor if He deigns to touch me at all.
3. It is my duty to obey any and all commands given to me by my Master, and to do this without question.
4. i shall speak only when my Master gives me permission to speak, and any question i have regarding His commands or the specifications of my assigned duties are to be in private, never in front of others.
5. i acknowledge my inferiority to my Master.
6. In all personal activities, i surrender all decisions to my Master:
  - a. i shall wear only the clothing my Master permits me to wear, or go naked if He so requires.
  - b. my bodily functions are controlled completely by my Master, even the times when i may go to the bathroom are specified by Him.
  - c. If i am permitted to work, i shall only work for my Master, and surrender to Him all proceeds from my labors.
  - d. i shall address my Master as "Sir or Master" or by whatever title He chooses to specify.
  - e. i shall keep my body in the specified state of cleanliness, outside or otherwise, according to my Masters expressed desires.
  - f. i shall accept whatever punishments my Master may decree without complaint or protest.
  - g. At all times i will stand in a respectful posture in my Masters presence, and will sit or lie down only with His consent. At no time will i presume to sit on a piece of furniture without my Masters express permission.
  - h. my very thoughts will be only to love and serve my Master and to make Him proud of me. i will never carry feelings of anger, or resentment toward Him, and if such a thought should involuntarily cross my consciousness i shall immediately confess these feelings to Him and submit to whatever punishment He deems appropriate.
7. i recognize my duty to keep my body in a proper, healthy condition for my Masters use and pleasure.
8. i will reside in whatever domicile is commanded and provided by my Master.
9. i will eat only those foods provided by my Master, when and where He specifies that i may eat them.
10. i will never drink alcohol or take drugs without my Masters specific permission.
11. i will at all times be available for my Masters use, or the use of whomever He shall command me to serve. At the same time, i shall do my best never to be an encumbrance upon Him, or to make Him uncomfortable by my presence.

12. i will submit willingly to whatever additional rules my Master may wish to impose, either now, or at a later date.

There is a Masters Credence to go along with this, but of course your Master will have that and if He deems so He will inform you of its contents at such time.

The most telling point, and one the slave can seldom not promise, since he probably does it without understanding how or why, is: The slave must subordinate his own ego completely that he actually becomes an emotional component of his Master. If a man is unable to do this he cannot function as a slave. He can be an M, a subservient, a servant; but he is not a slave.

Master's Credo

- 1 I am a Master, and I accept this slave into my loving care and protection.
- 2 I will provide the physical and emotional necessities of life for my slave, and he will know my love as I choose for him to know it.
- 3 I will use my slaves body as I wish, such use is to be limited to my responsibility not to damage either his physical or mental being.
- 4 I shall establish a clearly understood set of rules for my slave and I will enforce his obedience in a firm but reasonable manner. These rules will be for his protection as well as his discipline, and will-to the best of my ability-foresee every eventuality and control even the most minute aspect of his behavior.
- 5 Within the self imposed limitations established above, I undertake to train and discipline my slave in a manner calculated to guide him toward a perfection of obedient submission that I know he can never achieve. In doing so, it will be my goal to reward his efforts by dispensing the punishment he requires and deserves.
- 6 I shall endeavor to provide for my slaves necessities of life, even in the event that I should die or otherwise be rendered incapable of caring for him.

The Masters Credo like the slaves is admittedly idealistic and simplistic. It is also considerably lower than the slaves, which is as it should be. The Masters responsibilities are fewer in number, but are considerably larger in scope. He is accepting a human life into his keeping. He must cherish and nourish it, but with enormous pleasure, both He and his slave can derive from these responsibilities.
